Consulting Services

Rubriq is a specialist community development consultancy that leverages human capital to create value and growth for socially driven organisations. We strongly believe in the philosophy that people lay at the heart of developing sustainable communities, as well as profitable and socially responsible businesses, organisations and institutions.

Our experts provide cutting edge solutions to pressing socio-economic and socio-political issues by combining cross sector expertise in management and human resource consulting with over a decade of experience in delivering high impact community empowerment programmes. We use business principles from both the private and public sector to support high impact change processes. Our service areas encompass, admin and legal, strategic and operational planning, financial planning, marketing and PR, leadership and organisational development, human resources, project management and programmes development.

We work with governmental and non-governmental organisations (NGOs), charities, philanthropists, business and social enterprises and a range of other societal stakeholders to ensure the creation of a fairer and sustainable world. Our goal is to ensure the benefits of political enfranchisement and economic success are shared by the many and not the few.

Our consulting services offer organisations with a social purpose the opportunity to create positive change. We do this by using traditional business services to support our clients comprising private, public and third sector organisations.

We provide holistic support which includes engagement from the concept/idea stage of your business or social venture, right the way through to start-up formation and ultimately, to successfully developing and scaling your organisation. We also support existing organisations to achieve efficient and optimum performance through effective strategic and operational planning. Rubriq's marketing and PR services are aimed at ensuring you communicate effectively with your clients, funders and stakeholders. Our broad range of services is reflective of many years of experience in creating value for individuals, organisations, agencies and institutions.

Rubriq has a network of professional partners that specialise in each of our service areas allowing us to provide clients with high quality consulting services. Whether you're looking for services such as entity formation/registration, document/report preparation, resource planning, funding and social investment strategies, design and marketing strategies, project management or programme development support, Rubriq is here to assist.

Value creation is at the heart of the Rubriq philosophy and integral to our service operations. Our expert professionals have significant experience supporting organisations of all sizes and are able to ensure that no matter what your organisational needs, Rubriq can help you to achieve your purpose, aim and mission.
